

University of Bonab president visited the Erzurum region universities in Turkey

The Head of the University of Bonab and the delegation at the visit of the Atatrk and Erzurum Teknik Universities of Turkey, signed the Memorandum of Understanding of Mevlana Exchange Program in following by an agreement on the Memorandum of Understanding signed on .November 27, 2017 by the University of Bonab and the Atatrk University

The Head of the University of Bonab and the delegation at the visit of the Atat&uuml;r and Erzurum Teknik Universities of Turkey, signed the Memorandum of Understanding of Mevlana Exchange Program in following by an agreement on the Memorandum of Understanding signed on November 27, 2017 by the University of Bonab and the Atat&uuml;r University. Dr. Karim Abbasian said: "Based on this Memorandum, Exchange of professors and students for scientific, research and cultural cooperation and provide a forum for joint collaboration between these universities. He went on to say that he joined the University of Bonab at the Unions of International University Universities, including the Union of Caucasus, Central Asia, and the Georgian Task Force, adding that we are one of them, and in the other two, the process of enrolling the university is underway. Is. At the end of the consultation with UPM Malaysia University, he signed a memorandum of understanding with the University to identify and establish relationships with international scientific and research organizations and provide the necessary means for communication and exchange of information with these reputable Islamic universities. It should be noted that Bonab University in the southwest of East Azarbaijan Province has 2,600 students in Ph.D., Master&#39;s and Bachelor&#39;s degrees.